St. James's, April 30.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, Representative in Parliament for the City of Glasgow, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, beg Leave to approach your Throne, professing, in the sincerest Manner, our warm Affection and inviolable Loyalty to your Majesty, and our Gratitude to Heaven for the Liberty, Peace and Happiness, we and our People enjoy under your Government.

Blessed, as British Subjects, with a Constitution, the Admiration of neighbouring States, which has been, in several Respects, improved under your Reign; protected by wise and equal Laws in the Enjoyment not only of our Civil Rights but our Religious Blessings; we would be unworthy of these high Privileges, if we were not thankful for them to the God of Heaven, and did not also feel a constant Gratitude to your Majesty, whom we consider as His Minister, raised up for our Good, as the Protector, Guardian, and Father of a great People.

Penetrated as we are with these Sentiments, it has been Matter of much Grief to us, that the Spirit of Rebellion has been prevailing, and still continues to prevail, in your American Colonies; and that the gentle Measures pursued by your Majesty and your Parliament, to suppress it, have hitherto been attended with so little Success.

We are grieved that any of your Subjects should be so infatuated as to deprive themselves of the real Liberty, Protection and Happiness, they have long enjoyed under constitutional Authority, and subject themselves to all the Miseries of a democratical Tyranny. We regret that they should receive any Encouragement from the Spirit of Faction at Home, and be flattered with Ideas of Liberty, which appear to us inconsistent with Subjection to Law, and subversive of all regular Government.

We have long seen with Pleasure how averse your Majesty has been to draw the Sword, and arm the Nation even in Support of Law and legal Authority, which have been insulted and trampled upon in your American Dominions: These Insults you have borne with a Patience and Lenity unexampled in any former Reign. We can easily enter into the Distress which your benevolent and compassionate Heart must feel for the Miseries which these deluded Men have drawn upon themselves, and still more for the Lives of your brave Subjects which may be sacrificed before Peace and Order can be re-established.

We should judge ourselves wanting in Duty to your Majesty, and in Justice to the People under our Care, did we not embrace the present Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of their Fidelity and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, their zealous Attachment to our happy Constitution, and Abhorrence of the present Rebellion. To inculcate on the People of our respective Congregations the Principles and Duties of Christianity, a Reverence for the Laws of their Country, and an affectionate Attachment to the best of Sovereigns, ever has been, and, we trust, ever shall be, our sincere and active Endeavour.

We implore the supreme Disposer of all Events, that He would, in His great Mercy, shorten these dire Calamities; that He would direct your Counsels, favour your Schemes in the Course of His Providence, and crown with Success your generous Designs for restoring and establishing Liberty, Harmony, and Happiness, in every Part of your extensive Empire.

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

Glasgow, April 10, 1776.

The Ministers and Elders met in this Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment,
James Baillie, Moderator.
